

LR: Hello everyone!

SMD: hello Livia. I am from Stony Brook University, NY

KJ: KJ, Saint Mary's College in Indiana

CH: Good morning all! University of Las Vegas Nevada, CH, JS and MH

LM: LM, Buffalo State College in Buffalo, NY

CR: CR, CB, and TL @ Eastern Kentucky University in Richmond, KY

AB: SMD, AB and SB, Stony Brook University

LH: LH, Univ. of Missouri - not a new grantee, but always wanting to gain information

EO: EO, University of Tennessee Helath Science Center

SD: SD, Ohio University Women's Center, 2009 grantee

EO: Health*

RA: Arizona Western College and NAU-Yuma

SH: Jefferson College of Health Sciences, Roanoke VA

JG: hey - here from nc state university

DF: DF and SC, Connecticut College, New London, CT

MWK: Yes

LM: I'd like to hear about your experience with getting things approved by the DOJ people

SMD: same here

DF: yes! we've had this problem too!

AE: Us too

CR: We have just started our grant work...and are interested in hearing the best way to "hit the ground running"...and also hear what has worked best (or was already in place) at other campuses.

MWK: Mandatory Orientation tips

JH: useful tools for managing data required for the bi-annual reports

RA: strategies for meeting the 100% contact with new students

SD: same here

KV: will we have access to aggregated data from all programs

JG: new

KJ: new

KV: new

CH: new grantee

CR: new grantees!

DF: new

SMD: new

SD: new

JH: new

RA: 3-5.9 years

AE: new

EO: new

GB: new

MWK: 6+ years

LH: 1-2.9 years

CM: 3-5.9

CC: new

LM: renewed grant, new project team

KF: 2.5 years

KM: new

SH: Since Sept 2008

SM: new

AM: new grantee

SD: how did you deliver these materials at orientation

SD: mandatory pre-enrollment on-line program

LM: an on-line program & at orientation

JH: 3 tiered system-- letters, orientation presentations, online class

CH: Part of mandatory orientation

SM: Mandatory Orientation and web-based seminars

SH: It is mandatory for all students to attend orientation. We also have an online orientation and a packet of information for mailings...we can do a combination of all the above.

RA: orientation, online presentation, classroom visits, phone calls with follow up, home visits prior to me...institution will not allow mandatory orientation

CR: mandatory orientation

SM: developing web-based training

JH: we need to develop, but we'd like to see OVW approved samples from other universities

LM: we did our own on-line program, deliver it through our course management system (ANGEL)

LR: Racine, your campus has a broad range of extensive strategies to reach the 100%!

RA: our web based module will be a combination of evidence-based material available and campus specific material

KV: did not specify

SD: to be determined

JH: one thing to keep in mind with LE training is collaborating with advocates... our LE really wanted to have them in the room for Q's

MWK: We have applied for Law Enforcement credits with our training. This gets the police there.

CH: We used our Take Back the Night event

KV: newsletter & women's center grand opening

SD: campus wide news release, articles in student newspaper, general announcements

JH: we're working on an april kick off for SAAM

SD: how did you pay for those events, written into the grant? outside support

MWK: what kind of emails?

KV: do those have to be approved?

MWK: thank you!

KV: thanks

KJ: what about letters to partners--inviting them to meetings--do those need to be approved?

KJ: thanks

AE: What if we wanted to do something like a Facebook page- would that need to be approved? Thanks.

SJ: You had The Vagina Monologues listed in the previous slide, but I was told that grant funding couldn't be used to support that production.

KJ: Is there more information on the change agent program?

LM: I'd like to see that too if possible

KV: that would be great! thank you!

JH: me too

KJ: thanks

JH: would you be willing to share samples of your forms? we're currently developing ours right now

LH: The Muskie Institute database is great for tracking for the reports.

SJ: Will this PowerPoint be available on the CALCASA website?

CH: Thank you Rebecca!

RG: Thanks. Hopefully it was helpful.

MWK: Thank you!

JH: Thank you, very helpful

JS: Thank you!

KV: Yes. thank you!!!

SD: thanks so much

MWK: when is the next institute?

GB: thank you very much!

RA: Thanks Rebecca

RG: June 16 & 17