CR: Can Teresa please speak louder?
LR: Hello to everyone else that has joined us for today's webinar
EZ: is anyone else having a difficult time hearing Teresa?
LR: To raise the volume, you can press *4
CR: Hi Livia - we are busy, but doing well. Hope you are doing well too.
LA: Yes, the sound is very low. I have my speakers turned up as far they will go.
LR: If that doesn't work, I'll let Teresa know
JC: yes, volume got quieter all of a sudden
EZ: i have my speakers up loud as well
LR: Try *4
RK: need more volume
CH: we are having a hard time hearing as well
CH: better
LA: that's better thanks
KV: yes
EZ: better thank you
CA: yes, thank you!
RK: Thanks
LR: Great! Thank you
CR: yes, this is better
DM: connected to linc but not seeing the slides
DM: found tab at top of page to move to the slides. perhaps others haven't seen that.
LR: Dennis, you can go to calcasa.org to download the slides if iLinc isn't working
LR: Apologies for the tech problems. We are working with iLinc to fix this as soon as possible.
RK: Voume problem again
LR: Try pressing *4 to increase volume. If that doesn't work, I'll ask Teresa to speak up.
LC: same here
LC: i'm just on audio

LA: that is better thank you

CA: that is much better - thanks!

LR: Thanks for letting us know!

RK: OK now THANKS!

MS: How is sexual violence defined in the 1 in 3/1 in 5 statistic?

DJ: My team was not available to attend this training. Who/what would I need to do to get this presentation on our training site and/or present to team?

MS: Thank you!

DJ: Thank you!

LR: Thank you, Michael and Dianna

MS: I imagine that if harassment were not included in the definition, the statistic would be much different.

DJ: How do we or do we address "false" reports? We had a similar situation and I wanted to create a learning moment for future incidences for the first responder teams.

DJ: My thoughts exactly. An investigation was done and found to be false, but there were some underlying issues.

CJ: How do you get officer buy-in as it relates to showing care, empathy, and not getting victims to recant their stories over and over to see if they are "telling the truth?"

CM: We the recording of this webinar be on the website

LR: The recording takes about 24 - 72 hours. We will notify folks on the PD listserv once its ready

DJ: Are you referring to forensic interviewing similar to interviewing for children?

RK: I believe the law enforcement mission is to build the case, not to undermine it.....

JJL: I think she meant, "recount" not "recant".

CJ: Thank you...

CJ: Did mean recount...lol

LR: We are about to segway into the Q&A, so if you have any questions for Teresa, please start typing them since we have 5 minutes left

CA: Do you have sample scenarios to use in training sessions?

JJL: It's a good question (from Candace)-- there's a tension between investigative process (which has to be objective on some level to be seen as fair) and the investigators/police being compassionate (ie: subjective) toward the survivor/complainant.

CA: Thank you!

RK: Great Thanks!

GB: thank you!

AP: Thank you!

RK: That's why we need a coordinated community response. members of the team will talk about the need for compassion.

PS: Great material..thanks!

CJ: Very informative..thanks!

DJ: Great presentation & points! Thank you all

KV: Thank you! Great information.

CW: Thanks for the information!

JJL: Thanks!

RK: Excellent job Again!!
